

The Lion

and

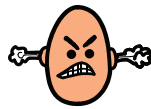

the Mouse

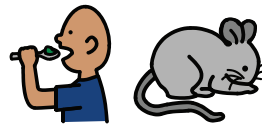

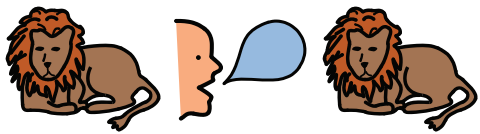

One day in the forest, a mouse

stepped on a lion's tail.

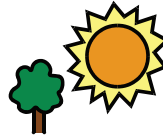

The lion was angry.

He said, "I will eat you up, mouse!"

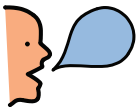

The mouse cried, "If you let me go,

I will help you some day."

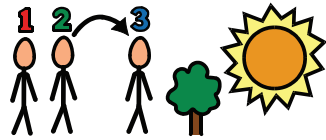

“You are too small to help me,”

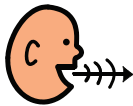

said the lion.

But he let the mouse go.

The next day, the mouse heard the lion roar.

The lion was caught in a hunter's

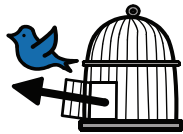

net.

The mouse chewed a big hole in the net.

The lion was free.

The mouse said, “Now you know that even a mouse can help a lion.”
